Dear Chris

Key Worker Status

I am writing to you to inform you that the Home Office is pleased to certify appropriate adults as key workers as they are considered essential to the effective running of the criminal justice system.

Please note though that Government advice is to stay at home whenever possible. It is to keep your children at home whenever possible – even if you are a key worker. If, and only if, appropriate adults are undertaking an essential role, critical to the smooth operation of the criminal justice system, which can only be done by accessing the school system and/or travelling, should they do so as a key worker.

We are most grateful for the service that you and the National Appropriate Adult Network provide.

Yours sincerely

Mark Williams
Head of the Police Powers Unit
